

2525 - Inspired by an original design of French master Jacques Adnet, we've reinterpreted the original into a frame that swivels, rocks, and reclines. Our Adnet chair features a single welt that borders the arms, back and top of seat cushion. The inside back tapers towards the head of the frame. For added pitch and comfort, the arms exhibit just the perfect arch which descends towards the back of the frame. The frame floats 2 inches above the floor, resting upon on a four pronged base.
